

OLD COURT ROOM: FACT SHEET

ABOUT THE OLD COURT ROOM

The Old Court Room was originally an extension to the Law Library of Lincoln's Inn, built in 1845. The Library became the largest of its kind in the English-speaking world, and the Old Court Room was used for court sittings, hence its name.

The Old Court Room is available to hire during the day and evenings on weekdays and weekends.

CAPACITIES

Dinner	40
Reception	100
Theatre-style meeting	50

DIMENSIONS

Length	36'0" (11.00m)
Breadth	16'6" (6m)

LIGHTING

Dimmer control switches.

SOUND

Public address system

POWER

240v. A.C. single phase

For more information or to book a viewing, speak to a member of our dedicated events team:

TEL: +44 (0)20 7405 5969

EMAIL: EVENTS@LINCOLNSINN.ORG.UK